FOREWORD

As early as 1863 the United Presbyterian Church began the use of printed selections from the Psalms in its Sabbath Schools. In 1879 the original edition of Bible Songs was issued. This was followed in 1890 by a revised and enlarged edition, and in 1901 by another revised edition. Along with the Bible Songs there have been auxiliary publications, such as Songs of the Ages, Children's Praise, Psalter Hymns, and Evangelistic Songs, all of them employing the God-given Psalms of the Bible, consecrated forever as having been the hymnary of our Saviour and of the Apostolic Church.

Bible Songs No. 4 represents the latest endeavor to provide for the musical service of the Church, with young people especially in mind. The greatest care has been exercised in its preparation. While the book is rich in familiar and favorite settings, it contains much new music which gives it a decided character of its own. The text material is the metrical version of the Psalms adopted in 1910. Pursuant to the interpretation of the Eighteenth Article of the Testimony by the General Assembly of 1914, a few choruses and numbers have been taken from other Scriptures than the Psalms.

The Committee has had the co-operation, as musical editor, of Mr. Charles N. Boyd, of the Faculty of the Pittsburgh Musical Institute. To his scholarly assistance very much is owing. The ordinary indexes are furnished. The music sections are prefaced by two doxologies and the Apostles' Creed for reverent recital.

In submitting the results of its labor the Committee offers the earnest prayer that the blessing of the Holy Spirit may attend the ministry of this manual of worship. With this prayer answered, the book will fulfil its purpose in stirring holy emotion and in magnifying Him Who "inhabits the praises of Israel."

A DOXOLOGY (JUDE 24, 25)

Now unto Him that is able to guard you from stumbling, and to set you before the presence of His glory without blemish in exceeding joy, to the only God our Saviour, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and power, before all time, and now, and for evermore. AMEN.

A DOXOLOGY (REV. 1: 5, 6)

Unto Him that loveth us, and loosed us from our sins by His blood; and He made us to be a kingdom, to be priests unto His God and Father; to Him be the glory and the dominion for ever and ever. AMEN.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I BELIEVE in GOD THE FATHER ALMIGHTY, Maker of heaven and earth:

And in JESUS CHRIST His only Son our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost; born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day He rose from the dead; He ascended into heaven; and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the HOLY GHOST; the holy catholic Church; the Communion of saints; the Forgiveness of sins; the Resurrection of the body; and the Life everlasting. AMEN.

That Man is Blest

Psalm 1

C. HAROLD LOWDEN

1 That man is blest who, fear-ing God, From sin re-strains his feet,
2 That man is nour-ished like a tree Set by the riv-er's side;
3 The wick-ed like the driv-en chaff Are swept from off the land;
4 The Lord will guard the right-eous well, Their way to Him is known;

Who will not stand with wick-ed men, Who shuns the scorn-ers' seat.
Its leaf is green, its fruit is sure, And thus his works a-bide.
They shall not gath-er with the just, Nor in the judg-ment stand.
The way of sin-ners, far from God, Shall sure-ly be o'er-thrown.

CHORUS

That man is blest who makes God's law His por-tion and de-light,

And med-i-tates up-on that law With glad-ness day and night

The Heavens Declare

Psalm 19

CHAS. H. GABRIEL

1 The spa-cious heavens de-clare The glo-ry of our God, The fir-ma-ment displays
 2 A-loud they do not speak, They ut-ter forth no word, Nor in-to language break,
 3 The clouds of heaven are spread, A tent to hold the sun, And like a bridegroom fair

His hand-i-work a-broad; Day un-to day pro-claims His might,
 Their voice is nev-er heard; Yet through the world the truth they bear
 Comes forth the might-y one, Re-joic-ing in his strength and grace,

CHORUS (Prose Version)

And night His wisdom tells to night. The heavens de-clare the glo-ry of God,
 And their Cre-a-tor's power de-clare.

GEO. C. STEBBINS

1 My end, Lord, make me know, My days, how soon they fail;
 2 To Thy e-ter-nal thought My days are but a span;
 3 O Lord, re-gard my fears, And an-swer my re-quest;
 4 I am a stran-ger here, De-pend-ent on Thy grace,

rit.

And to my thoughtful spir-it show How weak I am and frail.
 To Thee my years ap-pear as nought, A breath at best is man.
 Turn not in si-lence from my tears, But give the mourn-er rest.
 A pil-grim, as my fa-thers were, With no a-bid-ing place.

1 I wait-ed for the Lord my God, . . . Yea, pa-tient-ly drew near,
 2 The of-fering on the al-tar burned . Gives no de-light to Thee;
 3 Let all who seek Thee now re-joice, . . . Yea, glad in Thee a-bide,

And He at length in-clined to me, My plead-ing cry to hear. . . .
 The hear-ing ear, the will-ing heart, Thou giv-est un-to me. . . .
 And, lov-ing Thy sal-va-tion, say, The Lord be mag-ni-fied. . . .

CHORUS

Then, O my God, I come, I come, Thy pur-pose to ful-fil;

Thy law is writ-ten in my heart, 'Tis joy to do Thy will.

The Lord Takes Thought

And all Thy lov - ing, gra-cious thought Thou hast be-stowed on man;
 To me Thy lov - ing-kind-ness show, Thy truth be still my stay;
 Thou art my help in time of need, My Sav-iour, Lord, art Thou;

To count Thy mer - cies I have sought, But bound-less is their span.
 Let them pre-serve me where I go, And keep me ev - ery day.
 Then, O my God, I pray, I plead, Stay not, but save me now.

CHORUS

THOMAS HASTINGS

1 God be mer-ci-ful to me, On Thy grace I rest my plea;
 2 My trans-gres-sions I con-fess, Grief and guilt my soul op-press;
 3 I am e-vil, born in sin; Thou de-sir-est truth with-in.

Plen-teous in com-pas-sion Thou, Blot out my trans-gres-sions now;
 I have sinned a-gainst Thy grace And pro-voked Thee to Thy face;
 Thou a-lone my Sav-iour art, Teach Thy wis-dom to my heart;

Wash me, make me pure with-in, Cleanse, O cleanse me from my sin.
 I con-fess Thy judg-ment just, Speech-less, I Thy mer-cy trust.
 Make me pure, Thy grace be-stow, Wash me whit-er than the snow.

My man-y foes are made to cease, And strive no more with me.
He will sus-tain and hold thee fast, And give thee strength to bear.
